

ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM MANY STATES

Important News Gathered from Abroad for the Benefit of Our Readers.

There is a strong sentiment in Congress for an early adjournment. Representative Dwight, the Republican whip, expressed the opinion after a talk with the President that the programme might be closed up by July 1.

The House again refused to agree on an amendment to the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill making appropriations for automobiles for the Vice President and the Speaker of the House.

As a further means of insuring the safety of the lives of passengers and trainmen the Interstate Commerce Commission issued an order requiring the equipment with power brakes of 85 per cent. of the cars in any train operated in interstate commerce, effective September 1.

The Government crop report shows the area sown to spring wheat is about 12,742,000 acres, or 1,349,000 acres (7.5) more than sown last year; the condition on June 1 was 92.5, as compared with 95.2 on June 1, 1909, and 93.9 the June ten-year average.

Princeton, Ky., June 10—Judge Robinson's farm hand, important witness in the night rider trial at Hopkinsville, was shot and killed from ambush Thursday near Otter Pond. There is no clue to the assassin. Robinson had paid no attention to repeated warnings to leave the country.

In the Louisiana Assembly the Senate passed the Oglesby bill, which demands capital punishment for persons convicted of wrecking or attempting to wreck a train. During the last two seasons several trains carrying members of the Assembly have been wrecked on their way to Baton Rouge.

The heavy storm which swept over Arkansas, Northern Mississippi, Tennessee and Kentucky did much damage to crops and property. The worst damage was in Arkansas, where the wind attained cyclonic velocity and hail fell. Two fatalities resulted in that State. Wire communication is being gradually restored. Heavy loss to newly planted tobacco in Kentucky is reported in many sections and many fields were flooded.

Mrs. Jeanette Stewart Ford, a leading figure at the trial of Charles L. Warriner, now serving a term in the penitentiary for the embezzlement of $642,000 from the Big Four railroad, will not be further prosecuted. She escaped from a hospital in Cincinnati and was returned after a struggle. At this evidence of a weakened mentality, the prosecutor entered a nolle prosequi in the indictments charging blackmail and receiving stolen money pending against her.

Whitesburg, Ky., June 10—Three times married at the age of 17 is dare dare a story like that to the remarkable record of Sarah Jane the Kentucky papers, but he sells Craft, of the vicinity of Tenny, in it to the Eastern papers, which publish this county, who has just become fish it. Editorials are then written on the news item and the East holds up its hands in horror at the thought of a town being burned by feudists. In point of fact there are no feuds in the mountains now, and the fire at Hyden started in a natural way. The man who sent that story to the New York Herald should be put on a permanent blacklist and not allowed to send another story to any newspaper, as the very lightest punishment that could be inflicted upon him. Preferably he should be led to the borders of Kentucky and kicked into Indiana or Ohio.—Frankfort News.

Frankfort, Ky., June 9—The Board of Prison Commissioners granted a parole today of Tom Combs, sent to the penitentiary from Breathitt county for life for the murder and to his daughter, who is now living in Frankfort, does Combs own his freedom. The young woman has worked hard and faithfully to get her father out of prison coming to Frankfort to live in order to be near her father and where she could work for his release. She obtained employment in Frankfort and every six months, during the time she has been in Frankfort she has appeared before the prison commissioners and asked for a parole. She knew that the case would not be considered, after a refusal to grant the parole for six months, so she would stay away that long each time, but was always on hand when the six months were up. Combs has been in the prison nine years and has been a model prisoner. He was convicted of killing a man in Breathitt county, the testimony being circumstantial.

Whitesburg, Ky., June 8—Deputy Collector Sam Collins, of this city; John Adington, Deputy United States Marshal of Pikeville, and possemen are making a moonshine raid along Long Fork Creek, in Pike county, where a number of moonshine stills had been located. It will be an important raid. Officers are making a most systematic search for the moonshine element of this section.

Mt. Sterling, Ky., June 8—Mrs. Lillie Moore, wife of Thos. Moore, died suddenly under peculiar circumstances today. Indications point to poison being the cause of her death and the case is surrounded with much mystery.

The body will be taken to Earl Morgan county for burial. Mrs. Moore was 29 years old daughter of Dink Murphy, of this county. She became seriously ill this morning. At the time of her death a police officer was at the home to arrest her husband on a warrant charging disorderly conduct.

The Winchester News, the only daily paper in the Tenth congressional district, has come out against John W. Langley, who was reelected without opposition for Representative in Congress by the Republican convention at Mt. Sterling last Friday. Editorially the News says: "Langley has not made a satisfactory member of Congress. He has been an out and out Cannon man, only once mustering courage enough to vote against the speaker. In the tariff fight he could always be counted on to support every schedule which made for the interests against the people. It is now up to the Democratic party to nominate a strong man. If a satisfactory man is placed in the field, the News will oppose the election of Langley."

A New York newspaper prints a story of the fire at Hyden and says it is thought the blaze was started by feudists. This is the kind of stuff sent out from Kentucky by Kentuckians willing to make a dollar at the cost of the State's reputation, that hurts Kentucky.

No newspaper correspondent would dare dare a story like that to the remarkable record of Sarah Jane the Kentucky papers, but he sells Craft, of the vicinity of Tenny, in it to the Eastern papers, which publish this county, who has just become fish it. Editorials are then writ-

A Mother Sent Her Son to the Store for Change

She gave him a ten-dollar bill, and told him to get one five in change—one dollar in small pieces. The merchant gave the boy a five-dollar bill, four ones, a half and two quarters. On the way home the boy lost a quarter. It cost 25 cents to get the $10 bill changed. A checking account would have saved this trouble and loss. Ask us about the advantages of a checking account. We'll cheerfully explain.

One-eight to one-sixteenth of negro blood makes a child a negro in the District of Columbia. Because Justice Dan Frew Wright of the District Supreme Court, so decided. Isabel I. Wall, the seven-year-old daughter of Stephen Wall, the proprietor of a negro pool room will not be allowed to enter the white schools of the District. Wall will appeal from the decision.

The decision is even more far-reaching than in its effect on the settlement of the question of the Wall child's admission to schools for it establishes a precedent by which may be determined the more important question of what proportion of negro blood makes a negro in Washington.

In handing down his opinion Justice Wright said: "It is to be concluded that the child is of negro blood or one-eighth or one-sixteenth; that her racial status is that of a negro. She is therefore colored according to the common meaning of the term, and the application for a writ of mandamus against the Board of Education must be denied."

Ely's Cream Balm has been tried and not found wanting in thousands of homes all over the country. It has won a place in the family medicine chest among the reliable household remedies, where it is kept at hand for use in treating cold. In the head just as soon as some member of the household begins the preliminary sneezing or sniffing it gives immediate relief and a day or two's treatment will put a stop to a cold which might, if not checked, become chronic and run into a bad case of catarrh.

HOME CIRCLE COLUMN.

COLUMN DEDICATED TO TIRED MOTHERS AS THEY JOIN THE HOME CIRCLE.

Don't tell every thing you know, don't tell every thing you hear, don't bluster your tongue with back-biting, don't be Satan's bellows to blow up the fire of strife in the community. Either cut off a bit of your tongue or season it with the salt of grace. Be quick to work and slow to talk. Think of your own faults ere other people's faults you tell.

It is unfortunate that many girls think all they are required to do is to make trash, read trash, dress well and entertain their friends. Parents often imagine it to be the quintessence of kindness to allow their daughters to waste the years of their girlhood in such a manner. We are appalled when we realize what a vast army of young girls are throwing away their opportunities for usefulness. We would be glad if we could arouse the girls who prefer gaudy clothing and glittering jewelry, and having a good time, to a correct education; and who prefer the society of silly young men to the work of good authors. If girls would be truly happy, they should select a work the same as their brothers do a profession; they will then have an interest in life and will find happiness in useful work.

A Mother's Love.

It is not prosperity, with her smile and beauty, that tries the purity and fervor of a mother's love; it is in the dark and dreary precincts of adversity, amid the cold frowns of an unfeeling world, in poverty and despair, in sickness and in sorrow, that it shines with a brightness beyond mortality, and stifling the secret of its own holiness, strives but to pour balm and consolation upon the sufferer, and the cup of misery, filled to overflowing, serves but to bind them more firmly and dearly to each other, as the storms of winter bid the sheltering ivy twine itself more closely around the withering oak. Absence cannot chill a mother's love nor can even vice itself destroy a mother's kindness. The lowest degradations of human frailty cannot wholly blot out the remembrance of the first fond yearnings of your affection, or the faint memorial of primeval innocence; nay, it seems as

Nervous Prostration For Three Years

"Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine cured me of a period of nervous prostration of over three years duration, and the Anti-Pain Pills are as necessary to us as the roof of our house. They have been household remedies with us for many years."

WM. J. LOUGHRAN,
1214 Catherine St.,
Philadelphia, Penna.

Much sickness is due to nervous troubles. Headache, dizziness, epilepsy and insanity are nervous troubles. Then there is a large class of disorders which arise from a weakness of the nerves of an organ or part, as weak lungs, heart, stomach, kidney, bladder, eyes, etc. Dyspepsia and indigestion are usually the result of nervous disorders.

Restorative Nervine soothes the irritated nerves, and assists the nerve cells to generate nerve force. Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by all druggists. If the first bottle fails to benefit, your druggist will return your money. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

If the very consciousness of the abject state of her erring child more fully developed the mighty force of that mysterious passion which can forget and forgive all things, and though the youth of her fairest hopes may be as one cast off from God and man, yet she will not forsake him, but participate in all things save his wickedness.

Old Age.

We wish to say a few words for the old folks, believing that the infirmities of advanced years are often treated with an indifference that is hard to bear. Not by all, of course for there are many, we will hope the majority, that are thoughtful of the aged and kind to them. Then again, there are others who, to put it mildly, are harsh and cold. It is very natural to smile on what is lovely and strong, and frown on the reverse without even observing that we do so; and it often follows, with the young especially, that as they look on the furrowed face, the dim eyes the trembling hands, the tottering, uncertain steps of an old man or woman, they seem to forget that in that warm and homely prison house are a heart and soul which yearn for recognition, for kindness in word and deed, and for a little love, with an intensity that youth in its fullness does not know. They must forget, or one would not so often hear such remarks as, "Oh, grandma, don't bother; grandpa forgets everything; grandma, what do you want to go for? Old folks ought to be contented at home!"

In our words to others, in all our dealings with them, it is our duty to stop and think; and with the old it is positive cruelty not to do so. It is down hill, remember; a hill with steps, stony paths, and at its foot there is only a grave. Don't by impatient words and looks push them along its precipitous way; don't bridle their weary feet with rocks of ridicule and uncalculated jest, don't glaze that downward slope with the ice of indifference; and above all, don't hang on every bush and boulder placards of their own deterioration. It is not necessary to remind them that they have left their prime and strength behind. They know it, none so well.

Yes, let us sometimes stop and think; let us turn from our own ambition; from our ambitions for our children and lend a hand to the old folks. Let us smooth their path, let them lean on us as they step over the steep ledges and let us warm the chill of that bleak hill side with sympathy and love. Let us give them back all they gave in past days and give with interest; for believe us however useless you may deem them now, you will miss them when they are gone. It may be as you stand by their coffin; it may be years to come, when you tread the path once was theirs; you will stop and think; thoughts will come. Then God help you! God help us all. That in those thoughts there may not be that word of flame—remorse.

However worldly and sinful people are they want their children good. How are you going to have them good? Buy them a few good books? Teach them a few excellent catechisms? Bring them to church? That is all very well, but of little final result unless you do it with the grace of God in your heart. Do you realize that your children are started for eternity? Are they on the right road? Those little forms that are now so bright and beautiful—when they have scattered in the dust, there will be an immortal spirit living on in a mighty theater of action, and your faithfulness or your neglect now is deciding their destiny.
